

November 2020

Recruitment and entry into the British Army

There is a wealth of information on the below websites offering advice, guidance and information on joining the British Army.

Firstly, for students thinking of applying to the Army Foundation College (AFC) in Harrogate as a junior soldier after GCSEs, this link will give all the information required, including details of AFC's next virtual Open Day on 9th December (1800hrs):

<https://apply.army.mod.uk/what-we-offer/regular-soldier/training/afcharrogate?cid=mail6573827075>

The next link explains the differences between regular soldier and officer ranks, and also explains about Reservist positions:

<https://apply.army.mod.uk/what-we-offer>

The values and standards expected from all members of the British Army are discussed here. Dukies might just recognise these:

<https://apply.army.mod.uk/what-we-offer/what-we-stand-for>

105 different roles and job specifications within the Army are listed here:

<https://apply.army.mod.uk/roles>

The different options for Army entry are shown here, including details on bursaries, scholarships, and Army Officer Internships:

<https://apply.army.mod.uk/how-to-join/entryoptions>

Worried about training? Here are all the details:

<https://apply.army.mod.uk/what-we-offer/regular-soldier/training>

What is Army life like? This link will give you a flavour:

<https://apply.army.mod.uk/what-we-offer/army-life>

Information for parents and guardians, to help them (and you) through the application process:

<https://apply.army.mod.uk/what-we-offer/army-life/parent-and-guardian#>

For further information, or to book a session with an Army Careers Officer, contact Mr King
(stephen.king@doyrms.com)